We also take some 'still' photos for a church display board and web-site. These will hopefully be ready for family and friends to see on the Sunday. Last year the Oswestry Advertiser also published photos of the club without identifying children. We will also keep you posted about other Holiday Club activities.

I give permission for the child named above to participate in the Treasure Seekers Holiday Club activities. In the event of illness or an accident I give permission for the child to receive emergency first aid from the nominated first aider on the team.
